

GIUSEPPE RAVÌ

Respiro e Movimento®

PERFORMING ARTS & EXECUTIVE BUSINESS COACHING

Giuseppe Ravì is the Founder and Master Coach of Respiro e Movimento® [Breath and Movement], an innovative technique that aims at maximising the performance of professionals helping them to achieve their full potential.

A large number of testimonials suggests that students and professionals discover a new essential and effective way of expressing themselves, eliminating bad habits, feeling freer, more centred and grounded improving the connection with themselves, their instrument, the environment, other colleagues on stage and the audience. They also feel greater confidence when performing, expanding beyond their comfort zone.

He is currently Lecturer at mdw - Universität für Musik und darstellende Kunst Wien where he has been teaching within several Departments (Max Reinhardt Seminar - Department of Drama - Department of Piano - Department of Conducting - Department of Chamber Music and Contemporary Music - Department of Vocal Studies and Music Theatre - ISA Internationale Sommerakademie der mdw), He is also Lecturer at Hochschule für Musik Hanns Eisler Berlin and at Universität der Kunst Berlin.

He also facilitates individual sessions, lectures and workshops in several countries in Institutions such as Royal College of Music London, Ecole Normale de Musique de Paris, HEM Haute école de musique de Genève, Hamu Academy of Performing Arts in Prague, The School of Arts University College Gent, Accademia di Musica di Pinerolo, "Professione Orchestra" in collaboration with RAI Radiotelevisione Italiana, "La Sapienza" University of Rome, Dubrovnik Summer Festival, I.A.L.S. Istituto Addestramento Lavoratori dello Spettacolo, Euroballetto Dance Company.

He also collaborates with Maria João Pires teaching alongside her in workshops for pianists in Portugal, France, Croatia, Italy, and other countries.

www.giusepperavi.com

www.respiroemovimento.org